MUNICIPAL PARKING GUIDE FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

INTRODUCTION

If you are an Ontario driver who has a disability, or you're a senior with special needs, this guide is for you.

Keep this guide with you — in your vehicle — so you'll know where to find information on parking programs for persons with disabilities throughout Ontario. The Municipal Parking Guide for Persons with Disabilities lists communities that have parking programs, or some form of designated parking, for those with special mobility needs. It is based on a province-wide survey, carried out by the Office for Disability Issues of the Ministry of Citizenship, and the Ministries of Transportation, Municipal Affairs and the Solicitor General. Watch for updates from time to time.

You'll also find out where to call if you want to know more information about a community's parking by-law. To be able to use designated parking spaces, you must be in possession of a Ministry of Transportation Disabled Person Parking Permit, or any similar permit you might have from another Canadian province or the U.S.A. Communities not listed did not report having parking programs.

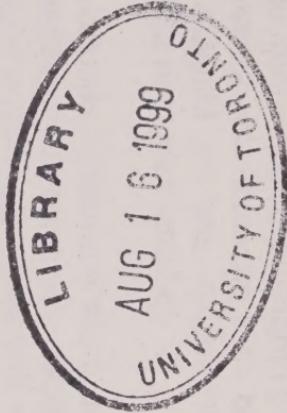

Contact the municipal offices listed in the guide for further information. All telephone numbers are correct as of December, 1993.

Telephone numbers not listed in the guide can be obtained through MTO INFO at (416) 235-4686, (416) 235-4902 (TDD) or toll-free (Ontario-wide) 1-800-268-4686 (voice).

This document is also available in alternative formats: large print, audio cassette or computer floppy disk (for IBM or Macintosh).

Printed on recycled paper. March 1994.

INTRODUCTION

Si vous conduisez un véhicule en Ontario et avez un handicap, ou si vous êtes une personne âgée ayant des besoins spéciaux, ce guide est pour vous.

Conservez-le avec vous, dans votre véhicule, pour obtenir rapidement des renseignements sur les programmes de stationnement pour personnes handicapées offerts en Ontario. Le Guide du stationnement municipal à l'intention des personnes handicapées donne la liste des localités ayant adopté des programmes de stationnement, ou toute forme de stationnements réservés, à l'intention des personnes ayant des besoins spéciaux en matière de mobilité. Le guide est fondé sur une enquête provinciale menée par l'Office des affaires des personnes handicapées du ministère des Affaires civiques, ainsi que par les ministères des Transports, des Affaires municipales et du Solliciteur général. Des mises à jour sont publiées de temps à autre.

Vous trouverez également les numéros de téléphone que vous pouvez composer pour obtenir des renseignements sur les localités ayant adopté des règlements sur le stationnement. Pour pouvoir utiliser des espaces de stationnement réservés, vous devez être détenteur d'un permis de stationnement pour personnes handicapées délivré par le ministère des Transports, ou tout autre permis semblable délivré par une autre province du Canada ou les États-Unis. Les localités qui n'ont pas indiqué qu'elles avaient un programme de stationnement ne figurent pas dans le guide.

Pour plus de renseignements, adressez-vous aux bureaux municipaux énumérés dans le guide. Tous les numéros de téléphone étaient exacts au mois de décembre 1993. Vous pouvez obtenir les numéros de téléphone qui ne figurent pas dans le guide en communiquant avec le service MTO INFO au (416) 235-4686/4902 (ATS/voix) ou au numéro sans frais (tout l'Ontario) 1-800-268-4686 (voix).

Permis de stationnement

This is my provincial handicapped parking permit. It is valid for 5 years from the date of issue. It is issued to me by the Province of Ontario. It is intended for use in Ontario. It is not valid outside of Ontario.
